Refugee Empowerment

Adult ReDI students as teachers & role models

Education & impact

- Together with our existing non-profit and for profit partners (ex. Cisco, Microsoft and Facebook) we will source appropriate learning material of the highest quality.
- The curriculum will be developed to fit each target group and be modular, so that each student can continue his/her progress over time.

Roll out // 2017-2020

Phase 0:

- Develop curriculum for the first course courses and secure appropriate hardware, software and training facilities
- Recruit 2-3 schools with “Welcome classes” in Berlin to participate in the pilot program. Coordination with existing school teachers
- Recruit and train volunteer teachers
- Recruit and train ReDI students as mentors, translators and role models

Phase 1:

- Implantation of the first of the 3-month modules for each of the 4 target groups (kids, youth, teens and girls).
- Close monitoring and evaluation to improve the program
- Demo Day At the end of the course where the kids present to their parents

Phase 2:

- Implantation of the second 3-month module for each of the target groups + DemoDay

Phase 3:

- Implantation of the third of the 3-month modules for each of the target groups + DemoDay

Phase 4:

- Once the program has successfully been rolled out in Berlin, we will look at expansion to other German cities where we may open ReDI Schools (München, Hamburg, Stuttgart)
- Potentially expansion of workshop modules in to UNHCR refugee camps through ReDI’s collaboration with the Norwegian Refugee Council
